TLD Registry Ltd, the registry of Dot Chinese Online (.在线) and Dot Chinese Website (.中文网) top level domains, will be running a course called "Online Tools and Services for Chinese IDN Domaining" during the NamesCon 2015 conference in Las Vegas next week.

This session explains practically all of the online tools and services you need to know to help you market and sell your Chinese IDN inventory. This session will clear up the confusion that many western domainers run into when trying to invest in Chinese IDNs. An example of some of the online tools that will be outlined in this section include: ChineseLandrush.com, Punycode and Unicode tools, 4.cn, escrow.cn, Yumi, and Alipay. This 60-minute session will go over these tools and more, and will show you how they can be utilized to help you avoid hassle and confusion during the Chinese IDN domaining process.

Each Online Tools and Services for Chinese IDN Domaining session will be held in TLD Registry's own Chinese Domaining Masterclass classroom, which is Ashton room #2 on the second floor of the Tropicana Hotel. To secure a seat to this session, stop by the TLD Registry booth to pick up a "fast pass" ticket to ensure your spot in the classroom. Again, if any three out of the four sessions are attended, you'll get your own 100-page binder curriculum, which covers everything in the presentation sessions, and more.
